Dear [Redacted]

25X1

I have just received a formal appeal of the efficiency rating which I gave [Redacted] for his last report. This will, of course, entail a long session with the Efficiency Rating Committee when [Redacted] arrives in the States.

I would greatly appreciate it if you would forward to me your comments on the conditions which you found upon your arrival in Cairo. When I was there I was of the opinion that many of the locally hired personnel were very dissatisfied and would have liked to make a complaint. Some of them actually did. I feel that many others probably would be glad to do so now that [Redacted] is not there any more.

Please understand that I am not asking you to enter into this situation against [Redacted]. I merely would like a fair appraisal and estimate of the situation as you found it for whatever use I might see fit to make of it in defending my actions in [Redacted] appeal.

Sincerely,

L. K. White
